

I believe the docketRM-10620 has a lot of merit for amateur radio operators who have over 20 years of operating experience and without any citations. It would be an added incentive for those who receive the upgrades by this docket to continue giving service and violation free operations.